Did you know...

...there are two ways you can read magazines articles online using your library card? You can use the Nook app at NH Downloadable Books to read an entire magazine or access the Online Newsstand to read major articles in the featured magazines from car repair to health and fitness to science. Login to either service with your library card number and check them out! Your text caption goes here. You can change the position of the caption and set styles in the block's settings tab.

Sharon Olds Is 2016 Hale Award Medalist

Richards Free Library and the Judges of the Sarah Josepha Hale award are pleased to announce that poet Sharon Olds is the 2016 Hale Award Medalist. She will accept the award on October 1, 2016 at 8:00 p.m. at the Newport Opera House.

A native of California, Sharon Olds attended Stanford University and Columbia University. She has published over a dozen collections of poetry and has won numerous awards for her work including fellowships from the Guggenheim Foundation and the National Endowment for the Arts. In 2012 she won both the Pulitzer Prize and England's T. S. Eliot Prize for Stag's Leap.

Wes McNair, Maine Poet Laureate, says of Olds "...there is not a doubt that she is one of the major poets of her generation in America. There is also no doubt of her influence in bringing more feeling to American verse and the woman's experience."

Olds teaches in the Graduate Creative Writing Program at New York University and helped to found the NYU workshop program for residents of Goldwater Hospital on Roosevelt Island, and for veterans of Iraq and Afghanistan. She was New York State Poet from 1998 to 2000. She lives in New Hampshire and New York City.
