TECH TIME AT THE LIBRARY

Over the course of two days, Thursday and Friday, May 11 and 12, 2017, a group of Newport natives who have had success across a wide range of writing genres, from fiction to poetry to nonfiction to children's literature, will return to the Sunshine Town to conduct a workshop at the Richards Free Library and Library Arts Center, perform readings, and talk about how they became published writers. The event is free but registration is required for space planning.

Workshop Sessions include such topics as:

- Jump-Starting the Muse: Poetry and How to Beat Writer's Block
- Stranger Than Fiction: Writing Nonfiction
