NEW BOOKS

Amidst this time of social isolation, new books are still arriving at the library. Please take a look at our catalog and place holds on any items and we will have them ready for you when we re-open the library. If you are signed up for our Favorite Authors Program, we are still placing holds on new books automatically. Not familiar with that program? You can sign up to be put on hold automatically for new books by some of our favorite authors. Email us at rfl@newport.lib.nh.us if you would like to sign up.

REMEMBER...

- Your books are not late! You will incur no fines and will not receive a letter looking for overdues. No items are due until the library has re-opened.
- Please do not return items to the library until the library has re-opened.
- Please do not drop off donations of books. Hold on to them until the library has re-opened.
- You may obtain a temporary library card so that you may access our online resources. The card will expire once we reopen. Fill out this form to receive your library card number.
- Check our sidebar menu and the remote services tab at the top of our web page. We are adding resources on a regular basis.
