VOLUNTEER TEA

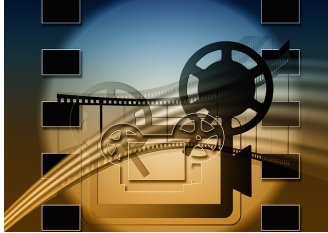

On December 11th, the Richards Free Library presented the 18th annual Pamela Gay Award for Volunteerism to Barbara Kresse at the annual Volunteer Tea.

Barbara works with our archivist Mary Lou McGuire and in that role she helped to improve our archives. Her first project was to organize and catalog the library's vertical file, i.e. 50-plus years of newspaper clippings, programs, pamphlets and other assorted pieces of paper having to do with Newport. She also assisted in inventorying the artifacts throughout the library. Barbara's knowledge of antiques and historical items was invaluable in setting up the parameters used and in recording and photographing 243 items.

The Award is named in memory of Pamela Gay who volunteered countless hours at the library and

CENTURION LECTURE

The Real Eastern Coyote lecture which was postponed in November has been rescheduled for 7:00 on Thursday, January 24.

The lecture will be presented by Chris Schadler. Ms. Schadler is co-founder of the New Hampshire Wildlife Coalition (www.nhwildlifecoalition.org) and the New Hampshire and Vermont Representative for Project Coyote (www.projectcoyote.org). You will learn a great deal while gaining a new appreciation for these beautiful and often misunderstood animals. Chris leads us to a better understanding of coyotes which helps conquer fears, encourage respectful coexistence, and enhance or instill an appreciation for the wildlife around us. Members of the audience will be offered interesting and informative handouts compiled by Project Coyote. The lecture is free and open to all. Refreshments will be served.

DIGITAL MAGAZINES

Don't forget about our digital magazines! There are 25 magazines you can borrow through Downloadable Books, from Popular Science to Cosmopolitan to Simply Knitting. The magazines are licensed for simultaneous use which means there is no waiting! They are readable on a computer (as the Read Now format) and through the Libby app, working relatively like an ebook.

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

The Newport Winter Carnival is almost here! The Children's Department is looking for participants and volunteers for our annual parade float. This year's theme is the "Pirates of Newport," so we're looking for volunteers to join our pirate crew and set sail under the Dread Captain Mo.
