YOUR LIBRARY 24/7

Thursday, March 14, 5:30 to 6:30 PM

Did you know that you can read the New York Times, stream a movie, research Newport history and download an audio book, magazine or ebook to your personal device? Do you want to learn how to use research databases to find medical or consumer information or find out what to read next? Come to the Richards Free Library to find out what is available to you, anywhere, any time. The only thing you will need is a library card. We will cover Kanopy, Overdrive, the Digital New York Times, Newport Historic Newspapers, Novelist, Universal Class, and EBSCOhost.

Remember that we have a telescope at the library that can be checked out (to patrons age 18 and over, only for one night). Eventually the snow is going to melt and nights will be warmer - perfect time to check out the stars and planets!
